

Healthcare providers and suppliers engage us in areas specific to their industry and for matters that can arise in nearly any business. We assist in compliance with federal, state and local laws and regulations and with professional licensing. Our litigators defend against a range of claims, including those involving malpractice, as in wrongful death and survivor actions. We litigate product liability cases as well as other insurance-related claims, including those involving general, environmental and directors and officers liability. Our employment and workers' compensation practices are extensive. Weber Gallagher clients include:

- Academic medical centers
- Acute care facilities
- Health systems
- Individual nurses and physicians
- Insurance companies
- Physician practices
- Providers of home healthcare services
