- Our first Weber Gallagher office opened in Philadelphia in 1991. We have more than 50 attorneys and 65 staff members working in our Center City location. We offer legal services in 19 practice areas including workers' compensation, litigation, general liability, health law, insurance, mediation and alternative dispute resolution, subrogation and recovery, toxic tort litigation and trusts, estates and wealth planning. We are several blocks from Philadelphia City Hall and close to the 30th Street train station. There is a parking garage next door to our office on Market Street.
