Charley focuses his practice on workers' compensation defense. He represents multinational retail corporations, restaurants, transportation companies, healthcare facilities, and third-party administrators.

Involved in all aspects of litigation, Charley works with clients from the inception of a claim, handles hearings, depositions, mediations, and arbitrations. Additionally, he has an extensive background in handling matters before the Workers' Compensation Appeals Board. Charley also handles fee reviews for clients.

Charley was selected by his peers for inclusion in the 2022 edition of Best Lawyers in America for his workers' compensation practice. "Ones to Watch" awards recognize extraordinary lawyers who have been in private practice for less than 10 years in the United States and is based entirely on peer review.

In his experience, Charley has defended clients in a variety of cases including general liability claims, civil litigation cases, domestic litigation, bankruptcy, and criminal law. He also served as an assistant to the Honorable David B. Torrey, a Pennsylvania Workers' Compensation Judge.
