Maureen focuses her practice on handling matters in major litigation areas, including the defense of individuals and commercial entities in premises liability matters, such as fall-down injuries, for businesses both large and small. She also handles professional liability matters, including medical malpractice, legal malpractice, and other professional liability matters involving real estate and construction, in complex professional liability cases. She also has experience with dram shop liability.

She also has previous experience in representing corporate clients related to debt collection litigation. After law school, Maureen clerked for the Honorable George S. Leone in the New Jersey Superior Court, Camden County and in the Appellate Division.
