

Christopher Deegan Obtains Dismissal of Case Against Building Inspector, Municipality

Obtained dismissal of a case against a municipality and a building inspector based on the Political Subdivision Tort Claims Act; the plaintiff resident of the municipality attempted to set forth causes of action based on the building inspector's revocation of an occupancy permit