

Sherri Dougherty Successfully Defends Claim Alleging Job Stress Related to Employee's Heart Attack

Successful in defending a Fatal Claim Petition for a traveling employee, whose widow alleged claimant had a heart attack due to work-related stress. The Judge found credible employer's medical and fact witness testimony, which did not support work stress as a causal factor in claimant's heart attack.