

Andrew Indeck Successfully Defends Commercial Landlord

Successfully defended a landlord in litigation resulting from the breach of a commercial lease by prevailing on cross-motions for summary judgment which lead to the dismissal of plaintiff/tenant's complaint against the landlord in whole, while also simultaneously obtaining favorable judgment on the landlord's counter-claim for breach of lease against plaintiff/tenant.