

Noah Katz Wins Five-Day Jury Trial in Orthopedic Surgeon Case

Persuaded a jury in a five-day trial to reject all claims against an orthopedic surgeon. A couple charged that the surgeon had failed to timely diagnose and treat the wife's knee infection, leading to a knee replacement, and made claims related to medical expenses, pain, discomfort, loss of employment and future earning capacity, and loss of consortium.