

Geoffrey Lockyer Obtains Favorable Decision in Employee Prescription Drug Case

Obtained a decision granting a Utilization Review Petition, in which the Judge found the employee's use of prescription narcotics, including methadone, to be unreasonable. The case relieved the employer from the considerable financial burden of paying for these expensive medications.