

Geoffrey Lockyer Obtains Favorable Ruling in Delaware Motor Vehicle Accident Subrogation Case

Won a trial in New Castle County, (Delaware) Court of Common Pleas in a subrogation claim resulting from a motor vehicle accident. The evidence established that the debris from the crash was located in the insured's lane of travel, proving that the defendant had crossed into oncoming traffic and was liable for the accident