

Mary Sherlock Wins Defense Verdict in High Damages Case

Won a defense verdict in a national, large insurance company case with disputed liability and potentially high damages. The plaintiff, who was riding a bike and was struck by a car, lost a kidney and sustained other injuries and had medical bills of $730,000 and past and future wages that were estimated at another $250,000. The insured had limits of $25,000 which we tendered and the plaintiff refused to accept. The jury was out for one hour.
