

Charles Starnes Successfully defends 18 police officers

Successfully defended 18 municipal police officers in 14 related civil rights suits in federal court. Following discovery, 11 suits were voluntarily withdrawn, summary judgment was granted in three and the final case resulted in a defense verdict following a jury trial. In addition, sanctions were granted against one plaintiff.