

James Bucilla successfully argues for a denial of a penalty petition

Successfully argued for a denial of a Penalty Petition, where an employee alleged she lost a significant business opportunity as a result of the untimely receipt of her workers' compensation settlement check.