

Abuse & Misconduct Claims

Our attorneys represent businesses, nonprofit organizations, public entities, religious institutions, daycare centers and educational institutions involved in alleged abuse and misconduct matters. Such claims raise exceptional concerns for private employers, business executives, educational/school personnel and healthcare professionals. Our attorneys are called upon to defend various types of employers and successfully do so, with a vast knowledge of the law involving civil abuse, harassment and misconduct.

Weber Gallagher's attorneys provide counsel on compliance and conduct thorough investigations into all complaints. Our attorneys are experienced in handling large, intricate and high profile matters.