

Representative Experience

- Automotive
- Automobile companies engage Weber Gallagher for a variety of matters, including defending clients in workers' compensation, environmental and asbestos cases, auto supply benzene claims, subrogation and employment law.
- We have also litigated matters involving catastrophic injury accidents, product liability claims and catastrophic motor vehicle accidents. Our experience encompasses jury trials, compulsory state court and federal court arbitrations, bench trials, and proceedings at the appellate, district justice and administrative levels. We also provide binding arbitration and mediation counsel. We are experienced and knowledgeable in state and federal rules and regulations.
- Our clients include large auto manufacturers, bus companies, charter tour companies, trucking and leasing companies, owners of auto companies and other business owners.
