

Banking & Finance

Community, regional and national financial institutions, including servicers and business creditors, engage us. We also counsel business debtors. Our representation extends to individual directors, shareholders and others in matters such as breach of fiduciary duty. Our bankruptcy and workout experience is extensive. We assist with foreclosures, along with other commercial and residential real estate matters. Weber Gallagher is positioned to handle matters that arise in the course of everyday business. We maintain substantial practices in employment and workers' compensation. Our attorneys appear in state and federal courts and administrative venues on a range of other matters, including:

- Business disputes
- Commercial transactions
- Environmental issues and toxic torts
- Property damage
- Risk management