

Public Entities

Weber Gallagher guides and represents government bodies at state and local levels and their servants, both elected and appointed. We defend against a range of claims, from those involving civil rights, employment, workers' compensation and breach of fiduciary duty to torts in areas exempt from immunity. Our insurance practice is extensive, and we assist in determining the appropriate types and levels of coverage with an eye on risk avoidance. Firm clients include:

- Boards of supervisors
- District Attorneys
- Institutions of higher education
- Mayors
- Police departments
- School districts

Experience

- Secured summary judgement and won appeal in favor of a municipality under the Recreational Land Use Act and the Tort Claims Act in a death action suit.
