

Weber Gallagher Welcomes Partner Suzanne M. Utke to its Philadelphia Office

Philadelphia, PA- February 4, 2019- Weber Gallagher is pleased to welcome Partner Suzanne M. Utke to the firm. Utke joins our Medical Malpractice Group and will be based in the Philadelphia, PA office.

“I’m excited to begin 2019 by welcoming Suzanne to our firm. She brings a wealth of knowledge and experience in the healthcare industry, not only as an attorney but also as a Registered Nurse, which is an immense benefit to her representation of our clients involved in Medical Malpractice claims,” said Andrew L. Indeck, Chair of Weber Gallagher.

Suzanne Utke has an extensive and diverse legal and medical background, focusing her practice on malpractice defense of physicians, medical practice groups and nurses, as well as the direct representation of hospitals, physician groups, and nursing homes. She represents clients in litigated claims in all areas of adult and pediatric medicine. Her practice also focuses on claims involving medical device and products liability as well as investigational research studies and Institutional Review Board liability. Before becoming an attorney, Utke practiced for seventeen years as a Registered Nurse.

“I’m excited to embark on a new chapter in my professional career with Weber Gallagher,” said Utke. “Weber Gallagher has a strong Medical Malpractice group of attorneys, and I’m looking forward to fostering new relationships with my colleagues and future clients.”
