

Complex Property and Energy

Weber Gallagher attorneys are approved and panel counsel to primary and reinsurance underwriters in the direct and facultative property, energy and engineered risk markets. They represent clients in Quota Share Treaty and Binding Authority products in the U.S. market. Our legal services help underwriters with coverage issues during adjustment, bad faith prevention and defense in the event of litigation.

We assist with matters in the following areas:

- Churches and Historical Structures
- Commercial
- Construction and Builders' Risk
- Green Buildings
- Industry
- Manufacturing
- Medical
- Municipal
- Power Generation and Transmission
- Renewable Energy
- Retail
- Technology