Carolyn Mirabile concentrates her practice on all aspects of divorce, support, custody, property distribution, and drafting of marital settlement agreements and prenuptial agreements. Carolyn assists her clients in navigating complex family law issues such as child support, division of assets, protection from abuse orders, alternative family issues, alimony, grandparents' rights, cohabitation agreements, alternative family issues, and more.

As an experienced trial attorney, Carolyn has handled hundreds of complex family law cases in the Bucks, Chester, Delaware, Montgomery, and Philadelphia Counties. To ensure her clients receive comprehensive representation, she uses the services of both forensic experts and custody evaluators.

A certified court mediator, Carolyn is skilled in helping clients effectively and efficiently handle all divorce proceedings including arbitrations, trials, and post judgment matters and appeals. She has successfully argued cases on appeal before both the Supreme Court and the Superior Courts of Pennsylvania.

A well-recognized leader in the field, Carolyn frequently speaks before professional groups and other attorneys. Carolyn has been included in the Pennsylvania edition of Super Lawyers magazine for family law since 2010. She has received a Martindale-Hubbell AV Preeminent Rating. Additionally, Carolyn has been selected by her peers for inclusion since 2019 in Best Lawyers in America for Family Law. *For more information regarding methodology for these accolades, pursuant to New Jersey Lawyer Advertising guidance, please see here: <https://bit.ly/WGMartindaleHubbell> and <https://bit.ly/WGSuperLawyers>.
