Vanessa Mendelewski Joins Weber Gallagher

Vanessa Mendelewski will join Weber Gallagher as an associate this week in the firm's Warren office. Mendelewski will focus her practice in the area of workers' compensation.

For the past two years, Mendelewski has been an associate Weiner Lesniak LLP defending workers' compensation claims filed against insured and self-insured entities. She has also represented insurance companies and joint insurance funds in coverage disputes.

Before joining Weiner Lesniak LLP, she was a pro bono attorney for North Penn Legal Services.

Mendelewski graduated from Widener University School of Law in 2012 and from Pennsylvania State University in 2009.

She is licensed to practice in New Jersey and Pennsylvania.
