Julie Kinkopf and Jennifer Laver Speaking at PMA Companies Hospital Think Tank

Philadelphia, PA – April 26, 2017 - Weber Gallagher Partners Julie Kinkopf and Jennifer G. Laver will speak at the PMA Companies Hospital Think Tank in a program entitled, “FMLA, ADA, FCEs and Return to Work in 2017 – What You Need to Know.”

Dozens of representatives from Hospitals in New Jersey are expected to attend the program in New Brunswick on Monday, May 8. The purpose of the meeting is to discuss best practices for hospitals.

Kinkopf is a former General Counsel and firm attorney who represents companies in employment and general litigation matters, defends public and private employers in all areas of employment law and advises managers and business owners. She represents clients in employment law including hiring, discipline, termination, leave management, wage and hour disputes, discrimination and retaliation issues, reductions in force and enforcement of non-competition agreements. She also drafts and reviews employee handbooks, personnel forms, employment contracts and severance agreements.

Laver, who is based in the firm’s Mount Laurel office, defends insurance companies, self-insured employers and third-party administrators in New Jersey workers’ compensation and general liability matters. She also works with insurance companies to help recover from negligent parties payments made to their insureds in New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Jen has experience with mediation and conciliation. Laver also consults with companies on handbooks and risk management in employment.
