Weber Gallagher Partner Lynne Gold-Bikin Named Trailblazer in her Field

Norristown, PA – May 1, 2017 – Lynne Z. Gold-Bikin has been named a Trailblazer in Divorce, Trust and Estates by the National Law Journal. This honor represents the accomplishments and changes Gold-Bikin has made in her over 40 years of practicing family law.

Gold-Bikin has handled hundreds of high profile cases, including matters involving international custody disputes and high value property challenges. She is a nationally renowned family law attorney who has frequently appeared on the major networks and has been quoted in prominent newspapers and magazines discussing domestic issues.

One example of Gold-Bikin's trailblazing and teaching is her work at the National Family Law Trial Institute in Houston where she has taught 26 years and last May the number of attorneys she has presented to in the program reached more than 1,000. Her courses have included the subjects of custody litigation, how to use expert witnesses, the role of psychological testing, understanding business valuation and how to improve your courtroom presence.

She has won numerous awards and literally wrote the book on divorce law in 1994 when her "Divorce Practice Handbook" was published. Her awards include 50 Best Business Women in Pennsylvania, KYW Women of Achievement Award and the Pennsylvania Honor Roll of Women Award. In 2014, Gold-Bikin received the Eric Turner Memorial Award from the Family Law Section of the Pennsylvania Bar Association in honor of her 40 years of exceptional work and her teaching others in the field. She is also Assistant Secretary of the Board of Directors of the Pennsylvania Bar Foundation.
