Lynne Gold-Bikin Presents Avoiding Marriages That End in Divorce

Weber Gallagher Partner Lynne Z. Gold-Bikin presented, "Avoiding Marriages That End in Divorce," to the Rotary Club of Willow Grove, on Thursday, April 12th.

Gold-Bikin discussed how to request changes from your partner and the best ways to fight in a relationship. She also presented how to keep work and home life separated and suggested strategies to keep intimacy in relationships.

Gold-Bikin is a veteran practitioner of family law. She has appeared on major networks and is frequently quoted in newspapers and magazines discussing current domestic issues. She often speaks around the region on marriage, divorce and negotiation skills and is the author of numerous articles. Her awards include 50 Best Business Women in Pennsylvania, KYW Women of Achievement Award and the Pennsylvania Honor Roll of Women Award. In 2014, Lynne received the Eric Turner Memorial Award from the Family Law Section of the Pennsylvania Bar Association in honor of her 40 years of exceptional work and her teaching others in the field. Lynne received an honorary Doctorate of Laws from Albright College.
