Andrew Indeck has been invited to join the Claims and Litigation Management Alliance

Warren, NJ, January 2, 2013-Weber Gallagher Simpson Stapleton Fires & Newby LLP is pleased to announce that Andrew Indeck has been invited to join the prestigious Claims and Litigation Management Alliance. Selected attorneys and law firms are extended membership by invitation only based on nominations from CLM Fellows.

The CLM is a nonpartisan alliance comprised of thousands of insurance companies, corporations, Corporate Counsel, Litigation and Risk Managers, claims professionals and attorneys. Through education and collaboration the organization's goals are to create a common interest in the representation by firms of companies, and to promote and further the highest standards of litigation management in pursuit of client defense.

Indeck is the co-chair of Weber Gallagher's Insurance practice group. He has also dedicated over twenty years of his legal career to representation of insurance carriers with respect to coverage issues related to the following types of policies: Directors and Officers, Errors and Omissions, Employment Practices Liability Insurance, Surety and Performance Bond, Comprehensive General Liability, Legal, Accounting and Medical Professional Errors and Omissions, Commercial Property and Casualty, Inland Marine and Business Auto. He has also assisted clients impacted by government imposed rehabilitation and liquidation of financially troubled insurance carriers. Related to the above, Mr. Indeck has assisted clients participating in domestic and off-shore captive insurance programs with respect to regulatory compliance, policy language, "ceding arrangements" between off-shore facilities/programs and U.S. based carriers/paper, valuation, claims history, underwriting, underwriting profit, I.B.N.R. issues and investment income.
