Philadelphia, PA – May 19, 2014 - Weber Gallagher Partner Lynne Z. Gold-Bikin is teaching at the Houston Trial Advocacy Institute this next week in a week-long program designed to teach trial skills to lawyers who practice family law. It is Gold-Bikin's 25th year at the Institute. "Attorneys enhance their trial skills two to five years in a week," she said.

The Chair of the firm's Family Law Group, Gold-Bikin, wrote the text book, "Trial Practice Manual" with her colleague, attorney Steve Kolodny from Beverly Hills.

Gold-Bikin has appeared on major networks and is frequently quoted in newspapers and magazines discussing current domestic issues. She often speaks around the region on marriage, divorce and negotiation skills and is the author of numerous articles. Last year, she was given the KYW Women of Achievement Award. She received the Eric Turner Memorial Award this year from the Family Law Section of the Pennsylvania Bar Association in honor of her 40 years of exceptional work and her teaching others in the field.
