

05.28.14

Lynne Z. Gold-Bikin Presents “But I Haven’t worked since My Kids Were Born: How to Re-Launch Your Career After Surviving Divorce”

Norristown, PA – May 28, 2014 - Weber Gallagher Partner Lynne Z. Gold-Bikin will give a presentation entitled, “But I Haven’t worked since My Kids Were Born: How to Re-Launch Your Career After Surviving Divorce,” to the Women’s Divorce Social Support Group at 7 p.m., Wednesday, June 18, at the Radnor Financial Center in Radnor, PA.

Gold-Bikin will discuss how to navigate your divorce when you have been the primary caregiver for your children, how to position yourself to re-enter the work place and creating and revitalizing a professional network.

At Weber Gallagher, Gold-Bikin concentrates her practice on divorce and custody matters. She has appeared on major networks and is frequently quoted in newspapers and magazines discussing current domestic issues. She often speaks around the region on marriage, divorce and negotiation skills and is the author of numerous articles. Last year, Gold-Bikin was given the KYW Women of Achievement Award. She received the Eric Turner Memorial Award this year from the Family Law Section of the Pennsylvania Bar Association in honor of her 40 years of exceptional work and her teaching others in the field.

About Weber Gallagher

Weber Gallagher has more than 110 lawyers and 18 civil practice areas. The firm provides legal counseling and representation in the Mid-Atlantic United States to local, national and international businesses, financial institutions and insurance companies. To learn more, visit www.wglaw.com.