

10.18.16

Weber
Gallagher

Temporary Total Disability - Defense to the Obligation to Pay

Our New Jersey attorneys will review the defenses to the demand for "temp" and when it can be properly refused even if the petitioner (employee) is not employed and may even need treatment. Employees are entitled to temporary disability as long as they are actively treating and unable to work from a work injury.