

5.30.19

WG University - Stop the Bleeding: Ways to Manage Medical Claims in Pennsylvania

Medical costs have quickly become a complicating factor in workers' compensation claims, and now tend to represent more than half of claim costs. In light of this trend, it is important to understand how to control those costs. Join our attorneys as they provide you with strategies and tools to help stop the bleeding of your Pennsylvania Workers' Compensation claims from the high medical costs.